Walter Kubica Dies On Fishing Trip

Funeral services for the late Walter Stephen Kubica, 46, who died while on a fishing trip August 9th, were held in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Coleman, Thursday, with Rev. P. C. Dods officiating. Interment was in Coleman Union cemetery; Hall's Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

On a two-day fishing trip to Lodge-pole Creek, south of Elko, B. C., Mr. Kubica failed to show up when his party was ready to leave for home. Following an all-night search he was discovered early next morning, apparently having died from a heart attack.

Born in Ekshaw, Mr. Kubica attended schools at Coleman. He was employed at the Coleman mines until 1949 when he entered the coal trucking business. He was a member of the UMW, Lions Club and the Slovak Benefit Society.

Surviving are his wife, Marjorie, of Coleman; his mother, Mrs. Theresa Kubica of Coleman; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Henriette, Coleman, and Mrs. Americo Marcial, Blairmore, and two brothers, Mike and Alois, both of Coleman.

He was predeceased by his father and brother in 1952 and 1953 respectively.

Change in Blood Donor Clinic

Mrs. M. Dunford, who is in charge of the next blood donor clinic for the Crows Nest Pass, states that the September clinic will be held in the Elks hall, Coleman, instead of at the Crows Nest Pass Hospital. This move has resulted due to the lack of accommodation at the hospital.

Mrs. Dunford will be assisted by the Coleman branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

It is hoped that all those wishing to donate blood will make a sincere effort to attend this clinic in Coleman. If there is anyone in Bellevue or Hillcrest who would like to help in seeing that people get rides to Coleman, they may contact Mrs. Dunford.

The spring clinic (1960) will be held in Blairmore and will be under the direction of Mrs. Anna Fabbro.

Turtle Mountain Hotel Modernized

The Turtle Mountain Hotel at Frank, Alberta, can now boast of being one of the most modern tourist and visitor facility units to be found in Western Canada.

The enterprise, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kerr, who describe the bedrooms as being furnished with wall-to-wall carpeting, bathrooms complete with showers, and for the visitor who likes more than a bath there is a modern swimming pool.

Visitors to the dining lounge will find prime Alberta steak cooked in wine on the menu, seafood delicacies and cabbage rolls of which the management is especially proud.

The modern enterprise also features a dance hall, cocktail lounge and well-stocked gift shop.

Prize Winners At Lions Bingo

Lucky winners at the Coleman Lions bingo, held Friday, August 7 at the Elks hall, Coleman, were:

Mr. S. Mitchell of Lethbridge, twice winner; Mr. E. Howard, Mrs. Valie Phillips, Miss Gail Murdoch, Mrs. Shirley Green of Victoria, consolation as the jackpot didn't go.

Following were splits:

Mrs. Balayewich and Mrs. J. Foxton; Mrs. J. Biech and Mrs. T. Bowman; Mrs. Joan Square and Mrs. W. Goodwin; Mr. Felix Hamilton and Miss M. Zak; Mr. J. Montalbetti and Miss Gail Murdoch.

Door prizes were won by:

Mrs. J. Shaeffer, Bellevue; Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. G. Rose of Yukon Territories; Mrs. Westhaver, of Blairmore.

The Lions announce that their next bingo will be held on Friday, August 21 at the Elks hall. The jackpot will be $100 to be in 56 numbers. There will be ten $10.00 cash prizes and more door prizes.

When success turns a man's head he is facing failure.

More than 1800 invited guests from points throughout Alberta were on the grounds of the Alberta Legislative Building recently for an outdoor luncheon tendered by the Province of Alberta to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and His Royal Highness Prince Philip. Informality and pleasantly warm weather prevailed for the two-hour affair. Top picture shows Premier E. C. Manning escorting Her Majesty and Consort on a tour of the grounds, where they mingled frequently with the guests. Prince Philip, background, has stopped to chat. Left-Dignitaries of the Government of Alberta and their wives, are presented to the Queen. Left to right they are: Rev. Peter Dawson, longtime Speaker of the Legislature. Mrs. A. R. Patrick, Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Economic Affairs, and Hon. F. C. Colborne, Minister Without Portfolio. Beyond the group is one of the many umbrella tables which complemented marquees for serving lunch to the large gathering. Right-The royal couple hear of Alberta's early history as they pause beside a newly erected cairn marking the site of the old Fort Edmonton. They chatted informally with a number of Alberta pioneers. A display of fine handicrafts and an oil painting, all of them done by Albertans, drew the interest of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip as they toured the rounda of the Legislative Buildings.

Bible Camp Well Attended

Sixty-two young people from all parts of the Crows Nest Pass from Elko, B. C., to Fort Macleod, enjoyed an excellent summer vacation at the Crows Nest Lake Bible Camp held last week.

The camp was under the able supervision of Rev. Mel Fredlund of Three Hills, who is supervisor of Sunday School Missions in Alberta.

With 62 young people on hand, seven counsellors were appointed and the camp was divided into seven sections, each under guidance of a counsellor.

The morning hours were devoted to a Bible study with a Missionary hour held before noon.

After the noon meal the entire afternoon was devoted to recreation under the direction of Dave Harrison of Victoria, who is now attending the Bible Institute.

The recreation included hikes, swimming, softball games, volleyball and all sorts of healthy recreation to make the camp enjoyable.

In order to give each of the groups the complete day-off for hikes and other day-long activities, the camp's seven sections each took over various duties, and by doing this systematically the camp was run in a most efficient manner.

After the day-long activities were ended an evening service was held with the message being given by the Rev. Fredlund.

Rev. Tom Conway of Blairmore, in charge of the Sunday School Missions in the Crows Nest Pass, also attended and assisted with the camp.

COLEMAN PARK POPULAR SPOT FOR TOURISTS

Tourists from practically every one of the fifty American States as well as from all parts of Canada and even some from abroad, are noted to have visited the Coleman camp shelter built on the north side of the number three highway in the town park. The splendid shelter erected through the efforts of the Board of Trade, and maintained by the town, has proven itself a boon to the thousands of visitors that pass through this district each season.

The shelter, located near Nez Perce Creek is set in among the trees and the town have improved their park tremendously during the past few years by building lawns, and installing benches and tables in the park site.

The Coleman Lions Club have also pitched in and an excellent wading pool for children has been built on the west side of the park where swings and slides have also been installed.

This summer the town have as a winter works project, cribbed the channel of Nez Perce Creek with rock, adding greatly to the beauty of the park. The town are also planning to do additional work to the river bed this fall during low water season. The work will include laying pavement in the creek bed and when this is being done several miniature falls will be built to break the force of the water. The paved bottom will also provide for a good wading pool for children.

The camp shelter, built in a central place in the park, is near the highway where it can be seen by passing tourists, who have free access to the shelter for camping or picnicking. Electric lights, running water, two cook stoves and fuel are provided for anyone wishing to take advantage of the shelter. Many local persons visit the park in the evenings where picnics are held. Numerous tents of passing tourists can be seen set up in the park each evening, as the grassy lawns and park shelters are greatly appreciated by the visiting tourist.

The Coleman Board of Trade are at present discussing the possibility of erecting a tourist information booth at a suitable location in Coleman.

The booth would be manned by one person who could provide all information of the area and when the person was absent a large map of the district would be on hand to relay the information to tourists. No definite plans have as yet been agreed on by the Board, who are doing much work to promote a better tourist business as well as better tourist facilities in this area.

Old Age Pensioners Attend Southern Alberta Rally

Thirty-two members of Coleman Old Age Pensioners' Association chartered a Dicken Bus on Wednesday, August 5th to attend the Southern Alberta Annual Rally of the O. A. P. at Waterton Lakes Park.

Inspiring addresses were made by Mr. N. Medd, provincial president of Saskatchewan, and Mrs. Cunningham of Lethbridge, provincial secretary, after which a buffet lunch was served followed by bingo games.

The Pincher Creek branch of the O.A.P. provided the entertainment. Community singing was greatly enjoyed with Mrs. Cunningham presiding at the piano. Mr. Dave Gillespie of Coleman, gave a recitation. A most enjoyable day's outing was had by all.

Rev. K. Iwaasa Is Inducted

The Bellevue United Church was filled to capacity Wednesday, July 29th, when numerous persons from all United Churches in the Pass towns gathered for the induction services held for the Rev. Kanu Iwaasa.

Rev. Iwaasa was inducted to the ministry of the Blairmore - Bellevue Charge by the South Alberta United Church Presbytery.

At the services Rev. Iwaasa was escorted to his seat by Elders W. Ritchie of Bellevue and Alfred McKay of Blairmore, who represented the two churches.

Rev. Rod Macaulay of Coleman, conducted the services, and for the occasion a solo "The Stranger of Galilee" was sung by Miss Belle Marcolin of Bellevue, accompanied on the organ by her sister, Mary Marcolin.

After the services a reception was held in the church where Rev. Iwaasa was introduced to members of the church.

Rev. Iwaasa was born in Raymond, Alberta, and is a man of variable experience, having worked for seven years as a wheat farmer, 18 years as a sawmill worker and for three years as an implement and machine shop worker. He served in Tofield, Alberta, as a student minister for three years and as secretary of the University of Alberta Student Christian Movement.

He was ordained at Medicine Hat at the last United Church Conference held in June, and taking over the local churches will mark his first charge since his ordination.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Convene In Calgary

It was announced today that approximately 25 Jehovah's Witnesses from the Coleman congregation will attend a district convention in Calgary August 27 to 30.

Walter L. Krish, presiding minister of the local delegates said that due to so many leaving to be present at the Christian Assembly, all local meetings from August 26 to September 1 have been cancelled.

Mr. Krish said that those from the local congregation who are attending the Calgary convention will enjoy companionship with Witnesses from several Canadian provinces, as well as delegates from the United States. He added: "As is true of all our conventions, large and small, it will be demonstrated that no matter what nationality, race or walk of life the delegates come from, the Bible message and Christian living has unified them."

Watchtower officials in Calgary report an expected attendance of 5,000 Witnesses to enjoy the four-day Assembly. F. W. Franz, the vice-president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, will be principal speaker.

The majority of those from the Coleman congregation will have accommodations in private homes in Calgary. At present Calgary Witnesses are conducting a house-to-house search for available homes.

the renewal for a further period.

As an old resident of the district, your newspaper has been quite interesting to me. I see references to my old friends from time to time. Your Journal brings me considerable pleasure.

Wishing you continued success.

Yours very truly,
DAN KHOROSH.

STORIES

I have a friend called Charlie Herald.

Charlie used to be an orchestra leader, so he got around the country a good deal and heard many a story.

Most of us do; but Charlie never forgot one.

As a result he is one of the best conversationalists I have ever met. Get him started and he can go on and on, from one story to another. He specializes in stories that are true; and more often than not, they have happened to him, personally.

For example, he likes to tell about the time he was in a restaurant in Maple Creek, Sask. A little, wizened up man came in and immediately caught Charlie's interest. With him, the little weather-beaten man had a dog about as small and weather-beaten as himself.

"The man sat down at the counter and ordered two steaks," Charlie said. "When they arrived, he put one in front of himself, then cut up the other one and put it down on the floor for the dog."

"That got me. I went over and asked him what the idea was buying an expensive steak like that for a dog."

"Well, he told me he was a sheep-herder — he needn't have told me I could smell it myself — and that his dog was such a good sheep dog he was better than any six men. 'So, once a year,' said the little man, 'I bring him to town and buy him a steak. This just happens to be that day.'"

Charlie has dozens of stories like that. I think things happen to him because he has his eyes open for the unusual. He gets more kick out of life than most men, so life does its best to provide him with grist for his mill.

Once, years ago, looking for a certain shell on a beach, I was having no luck. A friend, further up the beach, was also hunting. When we met he had three of the precious shells; I had none. I wondered if his eyes were sharper than mine.

He gave me one of his shells, told me to study it very carefully. I did. He then said that if I would now go hunting I would find one for sure, and sure enough I did. I had a better idea of precisely what I was looking for.

Life is much that way. When you have a very clear idea of what you are looking for, life seems to provide it. Charlie looks for human interest, or the warmth and joy of fellowship. And he finds it, abundantly — as his anecdotes will testify.

WILLOW VALLEY SHOOT ACCLAIMED REAL SUCCESS

Hundreds of Southern Alberta sportsmen gathered at the F. Lynch-Staunton ranch, 12 miles north of Lundbreck on Saturday, June 20th, to take part in the annual Willow Valley Trophy Club Rifle Shoot. Ideal weather prevailed, interesting competitions were held and competitors and visitors enjoyed a turkey dinner prepared by ladies of St. Martin's Church.

In the large calibre rifle with scope on still target at a range of 150 yards the trophy was won by Bernard Smith of Cowley, with a score of 12 out of a possible 12, plus two.

In the large calibre rifle with iron sight on the same target at 150 yards the trophy was won by Marcel Delax of Cowley with a score 8 plus out of a possible 12 plus two.

The tight group match using any sight or rifle at 150 yards for the Harry Davies Trophy, was won by Earl Hutchinson of Warner, with a score three-quarter inch group with three shots.

In the hunters match firing three shots in a time of one minute in a standing position at a target 150 yards distant was won by Bernard Smith of Cowley scoring 11 out of a possible 18 points.

In the moving target match firing two shots at a moving target at 150 yards the prize was won by John Sokella of Tod Creek, who rang up 8 out of a possible 10 points.

In the shotgun trap shooting event the trophy was won by Earl Hutchinson of Warner, with a full score of 10 birds in 10 shots. In view of the fact that in this event Mr. Hutchinson has won the trophy in the 1956, 1957 and 1959 shoots, the trophy was awarded to him as a permanent trophy.

The occasion marks the first time that a trophy has been won to be kept permanently.

The trophy club which began in 1949, has 18 trophies and shields out for competition in rifle and big game along with five trophies for fish.

In the five man team match, four position shoot, with 22 calibre rifle for the Wadena Shield, a Cawston team, comprising Bud Sloan, Brian Selby, Ralph Salt, Delynn Caldwell and Michael Dawson, chalked up a score of 577 points out of a possible 600. Each man on the team was awarded an engraved medal.

The Wadena team ran second in the event which saw six crack teams competing.

In the 22 rifle with scope at 50 yards, Michael Dawson took first while in the 22 event with iron sight at 20 yards, Bernard Smith took top honors. The two winners then shot off with both iron sight and scope for the grand champion trophy in the 22 rifle class and Bernard Smith of Cowley, proved himself top marksman.

The Blackburn trophy, given for the highest score obtained in the five-man team shooting from four positions, was won by the Bud Schmidt team of Taber.

The winning team and the Hilton Pharis team of Willow Valley, each rang up 119 plus six points, then after a shoot-off and the tie the Bud Schmidt team took the trophy with a score of 115 points, with the Hilton team scoring 114 points. An engraved cup will be given to this winner by L. Blackburn to be kept permanently.

In the Jack Reid trophy match in 22 calibre rifle for boys under 16 years of age, the prize was won by Bryan Selby of Cardston with a 76 out of a possible 80 score.

Hugh Staunton of Lundbreck ran a close second.

In the ladies' event, Gertrude Wehrhahn of Mountain View, took first prize and Mabel MacDonald of Maycroft, second.

In all of the first ten events held engraved medals were given to all the winners to be kept permanently to show the wins as the trophies are only kept for one year unless won by the same team or person three consecutive times.

All awards were presented to the winners by president of the Willow Valley Trophy Club, Stan Weber, at a supper served by the ladies in the evening.

COME AND BRING A FRIEND

Letters To The Editor

Place: Friendly House
Next Door to Journal
Office, Coleman,
July 4, 1959.

The Coleman Journal,
Coleman, Alberta.

Dear Editor:
As a visitor to your fine town
this day, I'd like to say "thank you" for a warm reception and the friendly atmosphere.

I am a member of the E.I.D.
Community Band and enjoyed marching in the parade.

While walking around town I have seen many posters advertising the "Brooks Band" as being in attendance today. This is an error and I thought you might be interested in the facts about our band.

E.I.D. stands for Eastern Irrigation District, which covers a wide territory centered about half way between Calgary and Medicine Hat,
with Brooks being the central point.

There are many towns and villages in the E.I.D. Five of them have formed an organization called the E.I.D. Community Band.

The five towns are Tilley, Scandia, Brooks, Duchess and Rosemary.

Representatives from local organizations form the central board, which hires Mr. Norman Aberhamer, our able instructor and director. He travels to each town once a week to train and conduct local band units. From each town he selects members for the E.I.D. Community Senior Band, which you have seen and heard today in Coleman.

Other participants in our program belong to the Intermediate or Junior band groups.

I am proud to be a part of such a unique and wonderful co-operative effort to bring greater joy in musical experiences to people of all ages in our respective towns.

Participation in such a program
develops a broader sense of citizenship, loyalty and duty, respect for authority and sociability. There are many parents and child combinations in the band organization.
There are five such cases alone in my home town of Rosemary.

All three of my children are in the Intermediate Band, which is engaged by the 4H Calf Club to be in their parade in the town of Brooks this very day.

There are many interesting people playing in our bands. With us today is a dentist, three school teachers, mechanics, farmers, students, mothers — in fact, our lead bass drummer is the mother of eight children and two trombonists are mothers of five. The youngest member here today is 13 years and the oldest — well, I don't know.

I hope you find this information
of interest to your readers.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Thelma E. Coombs,
Rosemary, Alberta.

Dear Sir:
Would you please publish the following thank you note in your paper as soon as possible:

"The Committee and members of the Milk River School Band wish to extend a hearty thank you to Parade Marshal Mr. E. Corson and the ticketing committee for the efficient and courteous manner in taking care of our Band at the Coleman Rodeo, July 4th, also a special thanks to the persons who took us into their homes, for the generous hospitality which made our stay in Coleman a pleasant one.
Milk River School Band."

Yours truly,

Ray Elliott,

Sec'y-Treasurer.

Alberta Tuberculosis Assn.,

Dear Sir:
On behalf of the Alberta Tuberculosis Association we would at this time like to express our thanks and sincere appreciation to you for the excellent publicity you have given our Mass Chest X-ray Survey program in your district.

The clinics were quite successful and the success of this is no doubt due to the conscientious endeavor of all the committees concerned, and your newspaper in giving us the necessary publicity.

Thanking you for your personal interest in our program of tuberculosis control, I remain,

Yours very truly,

J. H. ANDERSON,

Director of X-ray Surveys.

Bridal Showers

A miscellaneous shower was held on July 31st at the home of Mrs.
Frank Graham in honor of Miss Patricia Parker, Reg.N., of Calgary.

A delightful shower was held on July 29 in the Elks hall in honor of Mrs. D. Pettrallini (nee Eleanor Poxton).

The honored guest was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts for which she very ably expressed her thanks to the friends assembled, also the hostesses.

A dainty lunch was served and whist and bingo were the entertainment of the evening.

Hostesses were Mesdames L. Trotz
J. Squarek, W. Harrison, J. Cartwright, A. Hirst, B. Fauville, O.
Sudworth, M. Clarke, G. McCulloch, M. Johnson, D. Sudworth, D.

and E. Neimeyer.

Fort Macleod opened Sunday

Fort Macleod, Alta. — A large crowd attended the official opening of the new Fort Macleod, Alberta.

Officiating Commissioner Rivett-Carnac of the RCMP was supported by his senior officers, including Assistant Commissioner C. B. Mc-Lellan.

Leading the guests was the Hon.
Davy Fulton, Hon. J. A. D. Mc-Curdy and Air-Marshal Hugh L.
Campbell.

Commissioner Rivett-Carnac drew
the attention of the audience to the significance of the mixed gathering of white men, pioneers, guests, Indians and Metis.

He said it was indicative of the great work the force has accomplished as peace officers.

The fort contains a museum. The local historical society recently built the museum with voluntary labor, and Mr. Fulton presented them with $25,000 for building expenses on behalf of the Canadian government. Following this, Mr. Fulton unveiled a plaque which is to be placed on the museum wall.

Later guests, Indians and old-timers proceeded in cars from Fort Macleod to the great Blood Indian Reserve, where the Hon. Davy Fulton, Hon. J. A. D. McCurdy and Air-Marshal Hugh Campbell were initiated into the Blood Indian Kainas Society and given Indian names.

Mr. Fulton was named Hon.
Chief Many Laws Mr. McCurdy,
Hon. Chief First to Fly, and Air-
Marshal Campbell, Hon. Chief Bird.

1959 Fire Losses Show Sharp Increase

Last year in Alberta there was sharp increase in the number of dwelling fires particularly in cities, towns and villages. According to reports submitted to Fire Commissioner A. E. Bridges, the number of dwelling fire losses reported almost doubled over that reported for 1957 and the increase in the fire loss in that class of property was 61 per cent over the previous year. There were 2816 dwelling fires in 1958 with the result that $1,352,- 717 worth of homes and home property were destroyed by fire. The loss of life, also, which amounted to 3 persons, is more serious in homes than in other classes of property and over the years 80 per cent of all deaths have occurred in the home.

The Fire Commissioner is asking that fire chiefs in Alberta give greater attention to informing the home owner of methods of fire prevention. The fire chief and other members of the fire department need only a little encouragement and a show of interest from the home owners to start a systematic fire inspection of all homes in the community. The fire fighters see the many conditions that can cause fires in the home and he is able by his knowledge and experience to impart life saving information to the home owner.

If there is a home fire inspection program in your community,
your community is keeping up with modern fire protection practices, but it is feared that this is not the situation in most communities and therefore the Fire Commissioner recommends home fire safety is a proper subject to engage the interest and endeavor of all homeowners and all organizations concerned in the welfare of the home.

Gideons Give 8,000 New Testaments To N. Alberta Pupils

E. E. Wickens, assistant director of personnel for the provincial government, was elected president of Gideons International, Edmonton
camp. He succeeds Bill Mohr.

Mr. Wickens, a member of the Gideons for 15 years, reported at the annual meeting that the Edmonton camp had distributed to grade five students about 4500 gift
New Testaments in the city and about 3500 in rural north Alberta, making a total of 8,000 during the 12 months.

He said another 550 Hospital Testaments will be placed in the University hospital in addition to 600
given last year.

In Alberta 28,000 New Testaments and Bibles were given out
during the past year's activities.
The world total stands at approximately 41,000,000 in 69 different countries and the Canadian total at approximately 3,000,000 to date.

Mr. Mohr, chairman of the hotels, motels, hospitals and jails distribution committee, said that 671 Bibles or New Testaments had been placed in these locations.

The Gideons Memorial Bible plan again proved popular in that many who lost loved ones or friends, dedicated a Bible in their memory.

Other officers elected were:
Vice-president, E. J. Sullivan;
treasurer, Norm Spratt; secretary,
John Campbell, and chaplain, Ed
Kowalenko.

Can You Stop In Time?

OTTAWA, Ont. — The nation is paying too high a price for its annual summer vacation, today claimed W. Arch Bryce, general manager of the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

Recalling that about 1,000 persons were killed and 23,000 injured
—many of them maimed for life—
on Canadian highways during last year's summer months, the safety official stressed that "the toll would never have been so high if the involved drivers had been able to stop in time."

Mr. Bryce makes the following suggestions to motorists who want to stay alive and let others live
throughout this summer:

1—Leave plenty of space — one full car length per 10 miles of speed —between the front bumper of your car and the car in front.

2—Stop driving if you feel sleepy,
angry or simply worried.

3—On long trips, stay alert, stop for relaxation and coffee every two hours or so.

4—Be patient in traffic jams,
and be courteous towards other drivers and pedestrians.

Under all circumstances make sure
YOU can stop in time, Mr. Bryce strongly advised.

A person can't hope for success...
he has to "hop" for it.
